MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT FOR REPRESENTATION ELECTION TO BE CONDUCTED THROUGH THE UNITED STATES MAIL

The County of Contra Costa, hereinafter called the "Employer", and the Public Employees Union, Local 1 ("PEU 1"), and the Teamsters Local 856 ("Teamsters 856"), jointly hereinafter called the "Employee Organizations", hereby agree as follows:

1. REPRESENTATION ELECTION: An election by secret ballot shall be conducted by mail among the employees in the Unit described below to determine whether or not the employees in that unit desire to be represented by one of the Employee Organizations or no organization. The election shall be conducted under the supervision of an impartial Election Supervisor from the California State Mediation and Conciliation Service (Service), jointly requested by the Employer and the Employee Organizations to serve as such. The Employer and the Employee Organizations each expressly represent that there is no other labor organization which claims to represent the employees within the unit indicated herein. Participation in this election by the Service is contingent upon the correctness of these representations and is not a determination by the Service that there is no other such claimant.

2. SENDING AND RECEIPT OF MAIL BALLOTS: A voter's packet will be mailed to each eligible employee described below in Paragraph 4. Any person who believes that they are eligible to vote in this election and has not received a voter's packet by January 4, 2016, may contact the State Mediation and Conciliation Service at 1-866-255-9232 or elections.smcs@perb.ca.gov during normal business hours and a packet will be mailed to that person. No requests for a packet will be accepted after 5:00 p.m. on January 18, 2016. Any questions of eligibility or duplication will be determined by the challenged vote procedure set forth below prior to the opening of any of the envelopes containing the returned Secret Ballots. The returned ballots must be received by the State Mediation and Conciliation Service no later than the regular mail delivery on January 29, 2016. Ballots will be counted at:

The Employer shall furnish the Eligibility List per PERB Regulations by December 4, 2015. There may be no additions to or deletions from this list without the signed authorization of each of the parties to this agreement or their authorized representatives. The only list of those people voting will be maintained under the direction of the Election Supervisor. The employee voting shall mark the square of his/her choice. There shall be no names signed, or otherwise recorded on the ballot.

The names of the authorized observers shall be provided to the Election Supervisor by the parties three (3) days prior to the ballot count. Failure to appoint an observer or failure of an observer to appear shall be deemed a waiver of the right to station such observer and shall not void the conduct or the results of balloting.

8. CHALLENGED VOTES: Authorized observers may only challenge the eligibility of a voter for good cause prior to the opening of the envelope containing that voter's ballot. It shall be the duty of the Election Supervisor to determine the eligibility of the voter prior to the opening of the ballot envelopes and either count or reject said ballot based on the eligibility list as provided for herein or any other relevant information as determined by the Election Supervisor. The decision of the Election Supervisor shall not be subject to appeal and shall be final and binding on all parties.

9. DUTIES OF ELECTION SUPERVISOR: The Election Supervisor shall prepare and cause to be mailed, a voter's packet to each eligible voter at their latest known address taken from a list prepared by the employer. This count shall be reduced to written form and witnessed in writing by both the Observer of the Employer and the Observers of the Employee Organizations, signifying that they have witnessed the counting of ballots.

12. CONFIDENTIALITY: The parties agree that the ballots, ballot envelopes and other election materials are confidential and will not be released by the Service after the election.

13. OBJECTIONS: The results of the election shall become final and binding on both parties ten (10) days after service of the Tally of Ballots; unless a timely objection is filed. Within ten (10) days following the service of the tally of ballots, any party to the election may file with the Board, at the appropriate regional office, objections to the conduct of the election. Any objections must be filed within the ten (10) day time period whether or not a runoff election is necessary or challenged ballots are sufficient in number to affect the results of the election.
